

HANGOVER BLUES

Verse 1 I got these hangover blues and blue is all I see.

Got these hangover blues, 'cause you set yourself free, ya, ya.

Well I'll never drink again. Same old song every week!

Verse 2 Well I hit that bottle hard, when you said you were leavin' town.

Ya I hit that bottle hard, when you could not be found ya, ya.

Well I think I need a friend, just a little hair of the hound.

Bridge Can you see the irony? The very thing I'm runnin' to,

to chase away old memories, is makin' you run from me.

Break Hangover blues. Hangover blues. (Solo)

Bridge Can you see the irony? The very thing I'm runnin' to,

to get my head through another day, is makin' you run away.

Verse 3 Hangover blues and blue is all I feel.

Got these hangover blues, guess you're finally free,

you just had to go.

A bender's just around the bend, it's been a hellova week!
